Practical Ideas and Strategies

Do you have students who present challenging behaviors that disrupt the flow of your classroom and the learning of others? Do some of these behaviors include tattling, screaming, roaming, blurting out, excessive talking, tantrums, and even outright refusal? Of course the answer is yes! While the percentage of students who engage in these types of disruptive behaviors may be small, the impact on the entire class can feel and be much more significant.

LISA ROGERS, outstanding presenter and behavior intervention specialist, has designed this seminar to give you practical solutions to teach the skills that will help your students be successful, both socially and academically. You will learn dozens of strategies to use immediately to reach your students who lack the skills to follow directions, share, take turns, stay focused, and remain calm in stressful situations. Ideas for simple, yet highly effective visual cues, ways to talk about behavior and thinking and positive intervention strategies to use when you need to address problem behaviors, will all be given.

You won't want to miss this strategy-packed day filled with practical and developmentally appropriate ways to decrease behaviors that disrupt learning and increase the skills students need to be successful in school.

A Message From Seminar Leader, Lisa Rogers

Uniquely Qualified Instructor

LISA ROGERS is an acclaimed presenter and veteran educator who specializes in working with preschool–second grade students. She has over 30 years of experience in working with young children who exhibit difficult behaviors that prevent them from learning and socializing appropriately with others. Lisa's extensive experience provides a practical perspective for teaching students who have attention-seeking behaviors and self-regulation deficits including impulsivity, lack of focus and an inability to think and plan actions, which often lead to tantrums.

Lisa is a frequent presenter at local and state conferences and has developed inclusive education training modules with accompanying videos. She is the author of Decrease Attention-Getting and Tantrum Behaviors: Practical Solutions (Preschool–Second Grade), the extensive digital resource handbook you will receive at the seminar that is filled with research-based ideas and strategies you will be able to immediately apply or adapt in your own classroom. You won't want to miss this seminar where Lisa will answer your questions and provide solutions to addressing your students' most challenging behaviors!

Dear Colleague:

Although we have probably never met, I'll bet I can make an educated guess about why you might be interested in spending a day together. I'll guess that you have a classroom full of beautiful young students who you care about deeply. I'll also bet that you are passionate about your life as a teacher and consider each day a gift of possibilities – and you have one, two or maybe more students who have rocked your world a bit. They might not sit when you tell them to sit, or they might even scream, run out of the room, talk incessantly, push others, or run around – and all the strategies you have used before don't seem to work.

During our day together, I will give you dozens of practical, doable strategies to stop the cycle of repeated attention-getting behaviors that get in the way of productive class activities and learning. We will explore specific ways to use visual and auditory cues, maximize learning through purposeful play, transition routines, strategies to teach students to regulate their thinking, emotions and behavior, as well as how to increase your young students' ability to focus and stay engaged. We will also look at what to do during and after a tantrum to defuse the situation and reduce re-occurrences.

I hope you will join me so that we can work together to build new strategies and help your students develop the skills and behaviors that you and I know they will need to be successful inside and outside your classroom. I promise you will leave with a toolkit of strategies that really work, along with a renewed energy to do the valuable work of teaching young children!

Sincerely,

Lisa Rogers

P.S. Be prepared to leave with dozens of practical solutions to develop social skills that help young children respond in more appropriate and acceptable ways in the classroom setting.

"I promise you will leave with a toolkit of strategies that really work, along with a renewed energy to do the valuable work of teaching young children!"

What Your Colleagues Say About Lisa Rogers

"This is my second seminar with Lisa and I always walk away with a big wave of inspiration and a bunch of new ideas to try! I love how she gives us hundreds of resources that are already made but that can also be tailored/edited to the needs and interests of my students."

– Addy Upton, Early Childhood Special Education Teacher

"Lisa's energy and manner of presentation made this one of my favorite seminars! The strategies that were shared can be easily and quickly implemented. This seminar made me think about my students and my classroom in fresh, new ways."

– Amanda Forbes, Preschool Teacher

"My brain is so full of ideas, plans and excitement! I am eager to implement much of what Lisa shared."

– Sarah Kilfoil, Teacher

"This was probably the most engaging and energetic PD I have ever experienced during the 9 years I have been teaching. I knew many of the things shown due to my background in special education, but I loved how it was presented and shown today. I definitely needed the refresher and am pleasantly surprised at how much I enjoyed this PD. I would definitely recommend to a friend and would love to take any other seminars led by Lisa Rogers."

– Ashton Gibbs, PK-3 Teacher
