A Message From Seminar Leader, Christi Gilbert

Uniquely Qualified Instructor

CHRISTI GILBERT is an innovative and experienced primary grades ESL teacher and outstanding national presenter. Her background includes decades of classroom experience teaching our youngest English Learners. Christi is noted for her enthusiasm, her attention to research-informed practices, and her love for her students. Christi is the author of Strengthen ELL Students Learning in Pre-K and Kindergarten, the extensive digital resource handbook each participant will receive at the seminar. Her presentations are clear, fast-paced and activity-packed. You will leave with a wealth of new ideas you can easily use in your own ESL, academic support, push in, co-taught or general education early learning classroom. Join Christi for a fun day filled with many practical ideas to help strengthen learning for all your Pre-K and Kindergarten ELL students.

Dear Colleague:

It's tough to see our youngest students struggle to grasp foundational academic concepts while progressing in their language skills. As Pre-K and Kindergarten educators, we've tried a variety of strategies, including all the ideas that trickle down from the upper grades. It often feels like we're having to adapt ideas for our age group or missing that special connection between their native language abilities and their academic performance. We know deep down that even in the early years of school, academic vocabulary knowledge and skills hold the key to their success, and we need a better way to help them get there.

That's why I'm thrilled to invite you to this unique one-day seminar designed specifically for Pre-K and Kindergarten educators who work with English language learners. This seminar is all about practical strategies that you can immediately use in your classroom. We'll explore ways to help your ELL students better understand the academic content and basic concepts you're teaching. By incorporating ELL learning techniques that are proven to help young ELL students, you'll see improvements in their confidence and skills right away! The best part is that these strategies have been tested in Pre-K and Kindergarten classrooms and have proven to be highly effective. My hope is that this one-day seminar will give you tools and resources you can use immediately to better support your ELL students and help them boost their confidence and success at school.

So, please join me for this idea-packed day where we'll explore powerful strategies that can make a real difference for your young EL students. It's also proven to be a unique and fantastic opportunity to connect and network with other primary teachers from around the country who share interest in helping young English learners get a solid start in their school journey. I can't wait to meet you at the seminar!

Sincerely,

Christi Gilbert

P.S. I will share dozens of practical and ready-to-use strategies and tools to help your Pre-K and Kindergarten English learners get a better start in their school journey.

"Even in the early years, academic vocabulary knowledge and skills hold the key to students' success ... Help them get there with this seminar's tools and resources!"

What Your Colleagues Say About Christi Gilbert

"I got a lot of wonderful ideas to take back to school and try tomorrow and in the coming weeks. Thank you!"

– Camille Connor, Pre-K Teacher

"This was hands down the BEST training I have ever attended. It was relatable, pertinent to what we do as educators, and gave us so many resources. I can't wait to take more classes with Ms. Gilbert. Thank you!"

– Katie Brice, ENL Teacher

"Very thorough and a nice mix of listening and interaction."

– Erin Lazarony, ENL Teacher

"Lots of information. I liked how the presenter used different forms, modes of learning and presenting to teach us how to teach others. Thank you!"

– Teresa Gucwa-Heines, Special Education Pre-K Teacher
