A Message From Seminar Leader, Diego Ojeda

Uniquely Qualified Instructor

DIEGO OJEDA is an experienced and passionate AP Spanish teacher, a recognized comprehensible poetry author, as well as a seasoned national world language presenter. He is an award-winning world language teacher, acknowledged for his outstanding and innovative teaching style that he brings every day to his AP Spanish Classes. Diego is co-founder of the international, well-known world language professional learning network LangChat and the popular personal learning network CharlaEle1 for Spanish teachers. Diego brings a refreshing, culturally aware, innovative perspective to the teaching of the Spanish language. Diego's instructional strategies are ideal for educators meet the needs of advanced placement Spanish students. In addition, Diego is the author of Maximize Student Success in AP SPANISH, the comprehensive digital resource handbook each participant will receive at the seminar.

Dear Colleague:

In our rapidly evolving world, marked by technological advancements, global connectivity, and increased travel opportunities, the significance of learning Spanish and engaging in AP Spanish Language and Culture classes has never been more pronounced. Beyond mere vacation phrasebooks, today's students are recognizing the imperative to communicate proficiently in languages beyond English. Particularly in the United States, the role of the Spanish language holds a unique prominence, woven into the fabric of our multicultural society. In our AP Spanish classrooms, we hold the power to equip our students for a future that necessitates cross-cultural competence.

With over three decades experience teaching Spanish in my native Colombia and in the United States, across middle, high school, and college levels, I bring a wealth of insights to share with you at this one-day seminar. I understand the nuanced challenges we face, and I am committed to helping you navigate them effectively and with ease. The techniques and resources I've honed over the years are at your disposal, and readily available to you in the comprehensive digital resource handbook you'll receive at the seminar. As educators, the more we collaborate and share, the more profoundly we impact our students' learning journeys. Plan to leave this interactive day of learning with dozens of actionable strategies and practical applications you can use immediately in your AP Spanish classroom.

I extend a sincere invitation for you to join me and your AP Spanish colleagues at this seminar. It promises to be a valuable experience for AP Spanish teachers, offering practical tools, inspirational strategies, and a supportive network of like-minded AP Spanish educators. Together, we can empower our students not only to excel in Spanish language and cultures, but also to thrive beyond the classroom as global citizens in our interconnected world!

Sincerely,

Diego Ojeda

P.S. I know your time is valuable. This seminar will emphasize practical strategies that you can immediately implement with your AP Spanish students!

'The more we collaborate and share, the more profoundly we impact our students' learning journeys. Plan to leave this interactive day of learning with dozens of actionable strategies and practical applications.'

What Your Colleagues Say About Diego Ojeda

"Amazing! Diego is an excellent presenter and generous, sharing many resources."

– Giselle Clouatre, Teacher of Spanish II, IV and AP

"This was the best workshop I have attended! Sr Ojeda is insightful, experienced, knowledgeable, and very helpful. I appreciate all the activities, documents, and stories that he has shared with us. I plan on using his suggestions in class, starting tomorrow. Thanks again!"

– Rosa Przetak, Spanish Teacher

"Diego is an INVALUABLE source of information for not only the exam, but the advancement of language acquisition (CI, etc). The materials he shares are excellent. He takes the fear out of the exam not only for teachers, but more importantly for our students."

– Kathleen Flanagan, Teacher in Charge of World Languages

"Full of ideas and well-organized. I always feel more confident after watching Diego's webinar trainings! One of my favorite presenters!"

– Louis Oliviera, Spanish Teacher
