A Message From Seminar Leader, Sue Brady

Uniquely Qualified Instructor

SUE BRADY is a highly energetic, engaging Reading Specialist and national presenter who is passionate about teaching and instilling a love of reading in her students! Sue brings extensive experience as an elementary school Reading Specialist and classroom teacher. Sue has presented extensively to educators across the country and consistently receives high ratings from attendees of her presentations. You'll find her seminar packed with practical, Reading Specialist-friendly interventions and ideas you can use immediately in your work with struggling readers and as a building literacy leader. Sue's expertise, practicality and enthusiasm keep her presentations fast-moving and enjoyable. She is also the author of Increasing Your Effectiveness as a READING SPECIALIST (Grades K-5), the extensive digital resource handbook you will receive at the seminar. Join Sue for a day full of laughter and learning. You'll leave feeling inspired, reenergized and excited to implement her practical and highly effective ideas.

Dear Colleague:

As you know, being a Reading Specialist is an ever changing, unique and often challenging role! Not only are we responsible for supporting struggling learners, but we are also school leaders, tasked with advancing reading instruction and achievement in our buildings in our work with students, teachers, administration, parents, and the community.

Over my years as a Reading Specialist, I have experienced both highs and lows, and I want to share what keeps me going year after year. In our day together, we'll focus intently on what has worked (and look at what hasn't). I want to equip you with the practical ideas, activities and strategies I have found most successful, with the ultimate goal of helping you enhance your own practice as a Reading Specialist.

I will share dozens of classroom-proven interventions, strategies and activities designed to increase success and rigor for struggling readers, while also being highly motivating and fun. We will explore numerous great ideas for teaching and strengthening phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, and comprehension that will entice even your most reluctant readers!

Join your colleagues and me for this dynamic seminar, devoted uniquely and specifically to Reading Specialists. You'll leave feeling motivated, energized and excited about all the new ideas and approaches you can apply – not only to help solve challenging situations – but to greatly enhance your work as a Reading Specialist!

I'm excited to spend the day with you!

Sincerely,

Sue Brady

P.S. I have designed this seminar specifically with you in mind! You will leave refreshed, enthusiastic, and filled with great, new ideas!

"I want to equip you with the practical ideas, activities and strategies I have found most successful, with the ultimate goal of helping you enhance your own practice as a Reading Specialist."
