Join Amy, author of Using ART to Increase Learning (Grades K-8), for a thought-provoking, inspiring day focused on making your teaching easier while you increase the engagement of your Grades K-8 students.

Dear Colleague:

As educators, we know the value of teaching the arts to our students in Grades K-8. This seminar features a wealth of hands-on experiences and practical knowledge that you will easily be able to incorporate into your everyday teaching. The projects and ideas that I will share with you have been adapted throughout my 26 years of working with Grades K-8 students and art. I believe students in Grades K-8 learn and develop immensely when given opportunities to explore their creativity.

Have you ever been challenged by the need to meet the variety of skills and interest levels of your students? While our goal is to keep all students excited, motivated and engaged in learning with innovative art lessons, this isn't easy. Please join me for an interactive and exciting seminar designed specifically for Grades K-8 teachers as we explore a wealth of ideas and activities that will increase your students' achievement in art. Discover how we can help all of our students realize their creative potential and appreciate the creative spirit they possess.

I look forward to sharing this day with you. I know you will find this seminar valuable, motivating and exciting! Come discover how to take your students to the next level of creative thinking and artistic expression.

Sincerely,

Amy Friedman

What Your Colleagues Say About Amy Friedman

"Energizing and motivating! Amy shared a lot of helpful information and resources. Very valuable."

– Whitney Wallace, Art Teacher K-5

"I appreciate all the links and ideas given. I have attended very few "trainings" that were engaging and appropriate for my content area. I finally found one that was."

– Tiffany Tyree, Art Teacher

"This was a wonderful class to take. It was packed with information. We participated in hands-on activities and were supplied with lots of resources. Amy was great!"

– Laurie Sanders, Art/Special Ed. Teacher

"As a long-time art teacher, it was refreshing to spend a day talking with and learning from other art educators. Amy folded in multiple opportunities to engage in art making during the professional development, which I loved! I came away from this session with many new lesson ideas, ready to tackle the school year with enthusiasm."

– Esther Pomranky, Art Teacher
