Practical Ideas and Strategies

School districts everywhere are experiencing increased enrollment of English Language Newcomers, and teachers are doing their best to meet the unique needs of students in this demographic. National presenter and ELL expert Christi Gilbert has developed a highly practical, train-the-trainer opportunity to help you train your teachers in using proven strategies to help all your EL Newcomers transition to school more successfully. In this two-day institute, you'll learn the most up-to-date information on helping Newcomers, along with a wealth of proven strategies and resources designed to help you offer the best possible environment for their success. Highly useful information related to English Language Learners who are Newcomers will be explained in very practical terms. You will learn numerous strategies to help staff maximize their teaching time and improve outcomes for your EL Newcomers. You'll leave the institute with practical tools and strategies you can use immediately to train your colleagues and staff to provide the help your English language Newcomers really need. You will also gain tips, strategies, and extensive resources to aid you in training or coaching other educators in your school or district in best practices for helping EL Newcomers.

A Practical, Two-Day Train-the-Trainer Institute to Help You Train Your Teachers in Better Supporting English Language Newcomers

If your school or district is experiencing an increase in the arrival of English Language Newcomers, and you are looking for a better way to support your teachers in helping newcomers through their transition to schools and beyond, you do not want to miss this train-the-trainer opportunity. In this two-day institute, you will acquire the tools you need to deliver high-quality PD that will equip your colleagues with the essential ideas, strategies, and practices to greet Newcomers with increased confidence and success. Over two days, you will learn to identify and communicate key ideas and strategies for better serving EL Newcomers upon their arrival, and at each step forward. You'll learn how to more successfully support your teachers in helping Newcomers' conversation skills, participation in the learning environment, and decrease their fear and anxiety. In this unique opportunity, you will learn how to better guide your teachers in what to do and not to do when welcoming Newcomers to classrooms and schools. Whether your district, school or classroom is only beginning to experience the arrival of EL Newcomers, or you are already on your way to developing a plan, you will leave this institute with greater confidence and more tools to deliver engaging and effective training for your staff and help move them forward in their understanding and practice.

This Two-Day Train-the-Trainer Program is Cost Effective

If you are interested in providing in-house, high-quality professional development training for your staff in better addressing the specific needs of English Language Newcomers, this two-day train-the-trainer institute is the perfect opportunity for your school or district. Send one trainer or a team and they will leave with an extensive digital resource training handbook filled with the tools needed for delivering their own training, along with access to additional resources and a PowerPoint template to adapt to meet the needs of their own staff training. The focus of the two-day training will be on how to implement the crucial components necessary to effectively welcome and support EL Newcomers. Christi will set you up with the knowledge and resources you need to provide immediate and ongoing staff training that is tailored to the immediate and long-term needs of your staff.

Outstanding Strategies to Train Your Teachers to Help English Language Newcomers

Send one or more staff members or ELL teacher leaders to this training program and they will return to your school(s) with highly practical professional development resources and strategies ready to use in supporting English Language Newcomers. Participants will leave the institute with:

- Ready-to-use tools and techniques to support your staff as they work to help EL Newcomers find success at school
- Practical strategies for easing your EL Newcomers' anxiety about going to a new school in unfamiliar territory
- Dozens of free resources – videos, lessons, tutorials, reproducible materials – to create a diverse wealth of resources your team can use to help EL Newcomers learn the basics they need to feel confident and successful at school
- Practical assessment ideas your school can use to support learning and growth for your Newcomers
- Tips, shortcuts and tools you can use to streamline your EL Newcomer support
- Tips for developing and delivering high-impact EL Newcomer training for all your teachers
- Simple ways to decrease Newcomers' fear and anxiety about school
- How to more accurately assess your Newcomers' skills in their native language and in English
- Ideas and strategies to support EL Newcomers growth in reading
- How to use multisensory instruction to support EL Newcomers' learning outcomes
- How to deliver effective professional development for your staff serving EL Newcomers in their classrooms
- How to adapt current resources so that they are appropriate for use with students who are learning English
- All participants will leave with an extensive digital resource training handbook filled with tools needed for your own EL Newcomer trainings, including learning resources and tips for training your staff

“Christi was outstanding! I am walking away with a plethora of resources and I thoroughly enjoyed both days of her presentations.”

Dear Colleague:

As an experienced English Language educator and leader, I understand the unique challenges that come with increased enrollment of EL Newcomers in schools and classrooms. The influx of students from diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds can be both exciting and overwhelming for the students, and for teachers! I've learned that creating the most effective, welcoming environment for EL Newcomers requires us to work together in better understanding the learner in this unique situation, intentionality in our approach, and supportive teamwork during implementation.

In this two-day train-the-trainer institute, I will equip you with the knowledge, strategies, and resources necessary to train your teachers in addressing the specific needs of EL Newcomers. You will learn how to build teacher expertise in enhancing achievement for students new to learning English; provide your staff with practical tools to help EL Newcomers experience less anxiety and more confidence; and guide them in understanding the do's and don'ts when welcoming these students to your classrooms and schools. With a focus on developing effective professional development for your colleagues, you will leave this institute confident in your ability to deliver engaging and impactful training that will move your teachers forward in their understanding and practice.

Whether your school or district is just beginning to experience the arrival of EL Newcomers, or you are already working to refine your approach, this cost-effective, train-the-trainer opportunity is the perfect solution to ensure your teachers are well-equipped to greet Newcomers with confidence and success, helping them have a much better experience in this very significant life transition. I invite you to join me for this highly practical two-day institute and as we take a step forward in providing your EL Newcomers with the support they need to thrive. I can't wait to see you at the institute, where I will share all my favorite strategies that have worked well with my ELL Newcomers. I hope you can register today!

Sincerely,

Christi Gilbert

P.S. As an experienced teacher educator, I understand the unique challenges your team faces in meeting the needs of English Language Newcomers. This unique train-the-trainer institute is designed to help you give your school staff exactly what they need to help their Newcomers succeed!

“This is the perfect opportunity to ensure your teachers are well-equipped to greet Newcomers with confidence and success, helping them have a much better experience in this very significant life transition.”
