Practical Ideas and Strategies

Do you feel overwhelmed with the mental health needs at your school? Do you feel that what you were trained to do and what you are doing day-to-day are vastly different? Are you finding it difficult to meet the needs of implementing direct and indirect student services to meet the various mental health needs of your students (and staff)? Would you like to find strategies that can be easily implemented into your school counselor program? If so, this seminar was designed for you. JENNIFER ROGERS is a highly recognized national presenter, author and counselor who has worked with developing programming to meet ALL of your students' needs.

With over 20 years of experience as a school counselor and national presenter, Jennifer brings specialized experience in developing and implementing behavioral and social emotional programming and support for schools. Jennifer is a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) who works in and out of schools to support the mental health needs of students through practical, proven strategies. Jennifer's extensive experience in K-12 districts brings to her seminars a realistic perspective for developing programs that provide prevention and intervention support for school counselors. You will receive the comprehensive digital resource handbook, filled with practical strategies, ideas, and tools you can use the very next day to enhance your programming and meet the needs of your students. You will leave this seminar re-energized, less stressed and ready to structure your program to meet the mental health needs of all students.

A Message From Seminar Leader, Jennifer Rogers

Uniquely Qualified Instructor

JENNIFER ROGERS is a highly experienced educator with over 20 years of experience working with challenging students in K-12 classrooms. Drawing on her experiences as a school counselor, Jen has spent countless hours working directly with students with mental health needs. She is the author of Leading for Change Through Whole School Social-Emotional Learning: Strategies to Build a Positive School Culture (Corwin), The SEL Coach: Planning and Implementing Resources for Social Emotional Learning Leaders (Corwin), P.L.A.Y. (Prosocial/Peer Relational Learning Activities for Youth) Group: Group Counseling Interventions in School Settings and author of SCHOOL COUNSELORS: Better Support Students' Mental Health Needs, the extensive digital resource handbook you will receive at the seminar. Jen's motivating seminar will not only inspire you but will give you the specific, proven strategies your most challenging students need. Because of her extensive background, she is able to offer dozens of practical and effective strategies that have worked for her and countless educators in both special and general education settings. You will leave this exciting seminar with the tools and information you need to improve the learning of all of your students, especially those challenged most by anger, anxiety or aggression.

Dear Colleague:

As a school counselor, I know firsthand how challenging our job has become because of the increase in mental health challenges our students are experiencing. My collaboration with school counselors like you, who are trying to support students who are struggling, led to the creation of this seminar.

Students who are struggling with their mental health may have difficulty regulating their emotions and behaviors. This can lead to disruptions in the classroom, as well as frustration and stress for teachers, students, and school counselors alike.

In this seminar, I will share practical techniques, strategies, and tips that you can immediately apply to improve the mental health of your students. I will also discuss how to create a more supportive and inclusive school environment for all students.

Here are just a few of the topics that will be covered:

- Understanding the different types of mental health challenges that students may face
- Identifying the signs and symptoms of mental health distress
- Developing strategies for supporting students' mental health in the classroom
- Creating a safe and supportive school environment
- Collaborating with parents and other professionals to support students' mental health needs

My goal for the day is for you to leave the seminar with a better understanding of how to support the mental health of your students and a toolkit of practical strategies that you can immediately put to use in your school.

Please join me to strengthen your toolkit, avoid common pitfalls, and leave with new resources. I am excited to help you create a more supportive and inclusive school environment for all of your students!

Sincerely,

Jennifer Rogers

P.S. You will leave this seminar with lots of practical ideas and an extensive digital resource handbook to help you implement the strategies as soon as you return to your school!

"I will share practical techniques, strategies, and tips that you can immediately apply to improve the mental health of your students."

What Your Colleagues Say About Jennifer Rogers

"It was a great refresher! It was helpful to learn new techniques and strategies for students. It is also nice to connect with other counselors all over the US and hear firsthand what they are experiencing in their schools."

– Dominica Johnson, School Counselor

"Jennifer Rogers was so helpful and easy to learn from. She quickly established a comfortable setting on the Zoom and had such a wealth of knowledge as it pertains to school counseling and interventions. Lastly, I really appreciated how she acknowledged and held space for the struggles and difficulties of school counselors currently. I would definitely attend another seminar by her."

– Josh Kreisman, School Counselor

"I really enjoyed how personable Jennifer was and how she was able to explain this great and helpful information that she provided us!"

– Francesca Pakulski, Elementary School Counselor

"Great lesson! I have learned a lot and have plenty of new ideas to implement. Thank you Jen."

– Stan Delcorio, Guidance Counselor
