You will walk away not only with an extensive digital resource handbook packed with dozens of practical, easy-to-implement strategies, but access to Kelly's online resources designed specifically for Second Grade. While the day will focus on the practical strategies that work during distance learning, you will quickly see they will increase student engagement and can be applied to in-person classroom communities as well.

No matter your experience level with distance learning or these powerful tools, you will leave this seminar with a wealth of practical, use-tomorrow ideas.

A Message From Seminar Leader, Kelly Harmon

Uniquely Qualified Instructor

KELLY HARMON is an enthusiastic presenter with extensive experience teaching second grade. Kelly's experience has provided her with a clear insight into the frustrations, challenges and rewards of teaching, and the issues teachers face daily as they work to balance the demands of the classroom while improving learning for all.

Drawing from her many years as a classroom teacher, instructional coach and national consultant, Kelly's seminars are fast-paced, interactive and highly engaging, providing you with practical strategies to use in your in-person or virtual Second Grade classroom tomorrow. You will receive classroom-proven ideas you can use to strengthen your reading, writing, math, science and social studies instruction and greatly increase all your students' engagement, understanding and achievement.

Kelly has a wealth of ideas and strategies to help you refine your own distance learning second grade program. She is the author of DISTANCE LEARNING: Strengthening Your Online Instruction with SECOND GRADE Students, the extensive digital resource handbook she developed just for this strategy-packed seminar that can be used immediately with your second grade program.

Dear Colleague:

Twenty-nine years ago, when my career began home computers were not a thing, let alone the idea of a virtual classroom. So much has changed in the last three decades. As a new teacher when faced with a challenge I had yet to encounter, I resolved to learn everything I could about how to reach and teach every child through creative, meaningful, and fun experiences that capture students' interests and curiosity. Today is no different.

Over the last 10 years, I have been using iPads, Chromebooks, Google Classroom, YouTube, gaming apps and more in effective ways that get beyond surface level learning. Four years ago, I started teaching virtually using Zoom or Google Meets. I will share how to maximize the hardware and software you have, including what I've learned from missteps and mistakes.

There is no doubt COVID-19 has brought significant changes to our classroom. What it hasn't changed is our resolve to serve our students well and to employ every tool we have to keep their learning going. I understand the challenges you are facing. As a teacher and instructional coach working with primary grade students, I have learned and refined dozens of innovative, research-based strategies and techniques for accelerating student learning in the online environment. My goal for this day is to demonstrate the best-of-the-best of these exemplary activities and ideas with you.

During our day together, we will cover dozens of distance learning strategies, ideas and activities you can use to teach in ways that will make a significant difference for your Second Graders:

- A wealth of highly effective, timesaving strategies for refining your learner-centered virtual classroom
- Outstanding ideas, ready-to-use activities and a variety of resources for assessing and teaching in innovative ways across the curriculum
- Ideas for integrating technology that saves time and deepens learning – rather than adding another layer to our already full plates

I am truly excited to offer dozens of ideas, resources, tips, and suggestions you can implement immediately. Please join me for a jam-packed day of creative, fun learning experiences that promise to increase all your students' achievement in Second Grade and lessen your workload.

Sincerely,

Kelly Harmon

P.S. You will learn dozens of specific instructional strategies you can use to greatly increase the success of your Second Grade virtual classroom and will leave with an extensive digital resource handbook as well as my online resources!

What Your Colleagues Say About Kelly Harmon

"This was so helpful and Kelly was amazing! She kept us engaged and she gave us so many great ideas for resources I will use with my students. I am so happy I had the opportunity to attend. I am so impressed with the ease of this online format."

---

"I was not expecting to get this much from an online seminar, and I have to be honest that I was dreading today! I have a million things to do with remote learning, but I took PAGES of notes full of ideas. I am leaving with a very full brain (in a good way!). I loved Kelly's enthusiasm and personal touches. I wish I could teach with her!"
