KRISTEN HENRY is a highly experienced and innovative secondary English/Language Arts teacher and trainer. She is passionate about equipping fellow ELA teachers with outstanding strategies for engaging and helping their students be more successful. Kristen has worked extensively to support all grades 6-12 ELA teachers, including those who primarily work with students in special education, Advanced Placement and Dual Credit settings. Kristen is a frequent and highly sought-after consultant and presenter at state, regional and national levels. Participants regularly praise Kristen's highly practical skills and strategies that can easily be implemented the very next day. She is also the author of 50 Best Strategies for Teaching ENGLISH/LANGUAGE ARTS, the extensive resource handbook you will receive at the seminar.

Join Kristen for a high energy, engaging day full of outstanding strategies and ideas you can use to greatly strengthen your grades 6-12 English/Language Arts program – no matter what classes you teach.

Dear Colleague:

English/Language Arts instruction continues to evolve. The expectations for our students have intensified, moving well beyond rote responses to deep, meaningful conversations about text that lead to thoughtful and powerful writing. But how can we best help our students be successful in ELA? I want to show you how! In this seminar I will address all facets of English/Language Arts instruction – from daily reader-writer notebook entries, to close reading of complex text, to productive and academic student dialogue, to authentic writing for real world audiences, and more!

We will explore a wealth of practical strategies and protocols you can pick and choose from – all of which are designed to enhance your ELA instruction and to make your teaching life easier. I will share instructional elements you can immediately take back and use in your classroom to greatly strengthen your students' learning. Whether you are new to ELA, highly experienced or anywhere in between, you will walk away with ideas for elevating what you already do, as well as ways to maximize learning in your classroom.

As an experienced secondary ELA teacher, I've designed this seminar to incorporate all facets of English/Language Arts instruction. We'll dive into powerful, practical strategies for enhancing your instruction, assessment, planning, classroom, and much more! And we will focus on all modes of communication, exploring specific ways to engage our students in and strengthen their reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills every day. I want to show you how it's possible to make all of this happen in YOUR classroom with YOUR students.

I am excited to share a wealth of practical ideas for greatly enhancing your English/Language Arts instruction!

Sincerely,

Kristen Henry

P.S. This seminar is filled with practical, easy-to-implement ideas that you can use immediately in your ELA classroom.

"We will explore a wealth of practical strategies and protocols you can pick and choose from - all of which are designed to enhance your ELA instruction and to make your teaching life easier."
